NOTES FROM THE DEAN

Dear members and friends,

Thank you so much for your commitment to our AGO Chapter. November and December can be busy months for those of us engaged in church music. Planning, practicing, and other preparations for Advent and Christmas can be demanding. Even for those not participating in church music these months are a mixed blessing, filled with glorious opportunities to experience music and the joys of the season, but also with endless demands on our time and attention.

I would like to highlight our Santa Fe Preludes and Pies event, which will be held Saturday, November 23, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. We will gather at St. Bede's Episcopal Church, 550 W. San Mateo Road, Santa Fe, NM 87505. Thank you to organist, administrator, and AGO Member Jerry Nelson for hosting.

The reason for the time, Saturday at 2:00, was our hope that organists could gather from all over Northern New Mexico to participate and make it back home before dark. We know there are organists in Taos, Farmington, Los Alamos, Santa Fe and many other smaller towns. We would love to have some new organists gather who have been unable to travel to Albuquerque for past events.

If you live in Albuquerque, I would ask you to consider making the drive to Santa Fe to participate. We ask our northern brethren to drive to Albuquerque for AGO events over and over and over. Those of us who live in Albuquerque should return the favor and help to build up the Northern New Mexico organ community. If you know an organist living anywhere in northern New Mexico who has not participated in AGO in the past, please invite them to participate or pass on their information so I can invite them.

If you plan to attend and would like to play a prelude or bring a pie, please let me (Jeremy) know.

Secondly, I would like to invite you to our next Moveable Feast, which will be Sunday, January 12th at 5:00 p.m. at Starr Brothers Brewery North, 5700 San Antonio Dr. NE, Suite B1, Albuquerque, NM 87109. This moveable feast will be an opportunity to just chat and to share stories of the holiday music we have made and experienced during the previous months.

SUB-DEAN: I am so grateful to the Board of our Chapter and especially to our Webmaster Evelyn, our Secretary Susan, our Treasurer John, and to our previous Dean, Nancy Granert. However, operating without a Sub-Dean is difficult. If you would be interested in being Sub-Dean or would like to suggest someone who could begin a term mid-year, that would be so helpful.

NEW MEMBERS: If you have suggestions of potential new members, please pass on their contact information to me so that I or another officer can offer them an invitation.

Best wishes for a glorious holiday season!

Sincerely yours,

Jeremy Wirth, Dean

UPCOMING EVENTS

Santa Fe Preludes and Pies: Saturday, November 23, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. We will gather at St. Bede's Episcopal Church, 550 W. San Mateo Road, Santa Fe, NM 87505. Members are invited to share a prelude that they find useful and think others would find useful. Each participant will briefly explain their piece and then play it. The preludes will be played informally, so there is no pressure to prepare for a "performance." Member Jerry Nelson from St. Bede's will be hosting. A reception, including pie, will follow. All styles, traditions, and difficulty levels are welcome. Don't feel self-conscious about bringing something easy; for many of us easy pieces are more useful than more complicated ones! If you are willing to share a prelude or food for the reception, please contact Jeremy Wirth at jeremyrw77@gmail.com.

Membership Campaign: During the fall we will be working to build the membership numbers of the Chapter. Our plan is to build a list of prospective members and then ask an active member in the same town or with similar interests to invite the prospective members to join. We need your help with the prospective member list. If you know a person who is an organist or an organ enthusiast, please send their name and contact information to jeremyrw77@gmail.com. We will not reveal who suggested them for the list so you can

AGO-HQ INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SYSTEM

The long-awaited change from the ONCARD system to the new iMIS program happened on October 15, 2024. It is now essential that every member has their date of birth in the system, or it will charge you the full $120 renewal subscription. The new policy DOES NOT provide for any grace period of paying dues beyond the renewal date. So, if you have a renewal date of November 1st and do not make your payment by that date, your membership will be cancelled approximately two weeks later. This pattern of processing will occur every month at each renewal date during the year. The AGO accepts payments by both credit cards and personal check.

Members should have received instructions about the new login procedure. You will be required to have a valid email address, which will be verified during the first login procedure. If you're unsure, ask our Dean, Jeremy Wirth
